

I feel that K-Love is of great need in the community because it is a positive, uplifting music station for the entire family. I listen to K-love every second I am in my car and am able to focus on my day in a positive way. In such a negative and stressful time we are living in, the community really needs such a powerful radio station.